

[4] Ash x Vitalya EN

Day X

[SCENE START]

Vitalya: Yo, still selling bikes here?

Ash: (Normal) Yo. Still open, as you can see. What can I do for you?

Vitalya: See, I got a fancy road bike, but it doesn't feel good enough. I want more SPEED and adrenaline. Something that makes my blood boil every ride. Any ideas?

Ash: (Thinking) Hmm... A fancy road bike is already fast. Is there anything even more extreme? A fixie, maybe? Or electro? Nah, God forbid, this dude certainly wants his sweat.

[PLAYER CHOICE 1 - Узнаем про комфорт и стиль]

- Option A: "We can make it faster, but it might get uncomfortable on bad roads." (Осторожный подход)
- Option B: "If you want pure adrenaline, we need to strip away everything unnecessary." (Агрессивный подход)

If Option A:

Vitalya: Comfort?! Bro, I look like a Greek god in my spandex. I don't care if my back snaps in half, I just want to fly past cars! Make it look aggressive.

Ash: (Sigh) Well, there goes the suspension fork idea.

If Option B:

Vitalya: Exactly! Less weight, more speed! I want to fly past cars like a rocket. And make it look mean, you know? Aggressive street style.

Ash: (Smug) I like this guy's complete disregard for his own safety.

[PLAYER CHOICE 2 - Узнаем про тормоза (Киллер-фича Витали)]

- Option A: "At those speeds, you'll need massive hydraulic brakes to stop safely."
- Option B: "Have you ever tried riding a fixed gear? No freewheel, direct control."

If Option A:

Vitalya: Brakes? Brakes are for cowards who are afraid of speed! I don't want any extra weight on the bars.

Ash: (Thinking) Wait... He wants to ride in traffic with NO brakes? He's a madman.

If Option B:

Vitalya: A fixie? Hell yes. Direct drive, pure leg power. And don't you dare put any brakes on it. Brakes are extra weight.

Ash: (Thinking) A brakeless track bike for city traffic. What could possibly go wrong?

Vitalya: Look, I don't give a fuck what parts you put in there, but make it blazing fast and keep it light. Deal?

Ash: (Normal) Deal. Come back tomorrow, hotshot.

Day X+1: The Delivery (Экран результатов)

[SCENE START]

Vitalya: RAAAAAAH!!! WHERE IS IT!??

Ash: (Normal) Chill, let me grab it. (Presents the bike) Here it is.

(Под капотом игра считает статьи. Если игрок поставил Трековую раму, Фикс-передачу, Слики и убрал тормоза — Виталя счастлив).

[IF SCORE > 90% (Perfect Fixie Build)]

Vitalya: Looks absolutely insane! Shut up and take my money!

(Vitalya grabs the bike and sprints out the door, laughing maniacally)

Ash: (Smug/Thinking) Wonder how long it will take until the inevitable happens. What a madman! But there's something I respect about him...

[IF SCORE < 50% (Player put suspension, brakes, or heavy parts)]

Vitalya: What is this garbage?! I asked for a rocket, and you built me a grandpa's couch! There are BRAKES on this thing! I'm out of here!

(Vitalya leaves without the bike)

Ash: (Sigh) Well, I guess we actually tried to save his life. Our mistake.
