Absolute piece of shite! Wouldn't sell me the electro, and this pedal-thing got stuck in the first swamp! Mud tires are trash, clogged with clay instantly, fenders fell off!

EN: Well, she looks wild, alright. Boys at the store loved the neon paint, heh. But my legs are burnin' from all that pedalin', worse than after hay harvesting. Couldn't catch Billy's tractor, but at least he honked at me. It's alright, I guess.

HOLY MOLY THIS THING IS A BEAST!!! Rode straight into the deep bog yesterday, thought I'd need a tow truck! But she clawed her way out like a goddamn alligator! Mudguards kept my face clean, and the girls at the local pub went wild for that neon paint! Ash, you're the finest mechanic in here, I'm bringin' you a sack of my finest taters!!!
